LARRY DUNLAP ELECTED TO THE BOARD OF THE ALASKA TRUST COMPANY

Salina Kan. (August 7, 2008) –Larry Dunlap, retired owner of Salina Auto Parts, has been elected to the board of directors for the Alaska Trust Company, located in Anchorage, Alaska.

As a member of the board, Dunlap's primary responsibility is to oversee the activities of the Alaska Trust Company, a company that utilizes the advantageous tax and trust laws of Alaska to provide complete wealth management solutions to its clients. Currently, Alaska Trust Company is entrusted with more than $4 billion in assets and has attracted more than 1,000 trust customers from across the United States.

"We are delighted to have a businessman of Larry's caliber on the Alaska Trust Company Board," said Salina native, Stewart Horejsi, whose family enterprise purchased the Alaska Trust Company earlier this year. "We know that Larry's integrity, business experience, and insights will help us carry on our mission of using the unique tax and trust laws of Alaska to protect and grow our clients' assets."

In addition to being a successful business owner in Salina for four decades, Dunlap has served the community in a multitude of civic positions including:

- Salina Rotary Club, served on the board for four years, president one year;
- Salina Downtown, Inc., served on the board for four years, chairman for two years;
- Salina Salvation Army, served on the board for nine years, chairman for two years;
- St. John's Hospital, served on the board for seven years, chairman for two years;
- Salina Area Chamber of Commerce, served on the board for four years, chairman for one year;
- Saline County Sheriff's Advisory Committee, helped the Sheriff sell new jail project;
- St John's Military School, served on the board for six years;
- St John's Military School Endowment Board, served on the board for 10 years, chairman for five years.

"Alaska Trust Company is a company of dedicated, seasoned, professionals who are experts in investment management and Alaska's unique tax and trust laws," said Dunlap. "As a board member, I look forward to helping the company continue its commitment to its customers, their families and their best interests."

About Alaska Trust Company

The Alaska Trust Company was created to leverage the beneficial tax, estate planning, and trust laws of Alaska. Nearly every year, working with state and national trust experts, the Alaska legislature has passed laws designed to produce safe and effective ways to administer trusts under Alaska law, including changes to provide maximum opportunity to use income and estate tax planning options permitted under federal tax law.
